DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This action is responsive to the amendment of the applicant (Paper No. 28) filed on 4/22/03. Claims 1-11 and 16-21 presented for further examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-11 and 16-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ooki, U.S. Patent No. 5,991,846, in view of Yacoub, U.S. Patent No. 6,552,813.

4. Regarding claim 1, Ooki discloses a computer network system in which plural connecting means capable of connecting and disconnecting a computer is provided in a network circuit to which a first computer has been connected, and a second computer is connected to one of the connecting means [Ooki, col. 1, line 55 - col. 2, line 22 and col. 3, lines 1-25], wherein the first computer comprises resource information managing means for managing information relating to hardware or software, which are usable through the network circuit, and resource information processing means for taking out the content of the resource information managing means in response to a request of information relating to usable hardware or software from another computer, and transmitting to the network circuit [ie. printer selection unit with printer information storage unit, Ooki, col. 3, lines 39-61 and col. 4, lines 11-63];

the second computer comprises resource setting means for setting the hardware or software according to the content of the hardware or software information transmitted by the resource information processing means of the first computer [Ooki, col. 3, lines 16-47], and;

when the second computer is connected to the network circuit through any one of the plural connecting means, the resource setting means receives the content of the hardware or software information transmitted by the resource information processing means of the first computer and sets the hardware or software [Ooki, col. 3, lines 39-61 and col. 4, lines 11-63].

Ooki does not specifically disclose information including a position in the real world for each of the hardware or software. However, Yacoub, in the same field of endeavor, discloses sending client requests to the closest physical (a position in the real world) printer (hardware or software) [Yacoub, col. 6, line 46 – col. 7, line 9 and col. 10, lines 28-65], similar to the printer selection system of Ooki. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate an additional preference with location of the hardware or software, taught by Yacoub, in to the printer selection system, taught by Ooki, in order to be more user-friendly by sending the print job to the closest printer (within the client specifications).

5. Regarding claim 2, claim 2 has similar limitations as claim 1 and additional limitations of a resource installation position managing means for managing the position at which the resource managed by the resource information managing means exists and selecting an arbitrary resource. Therefore, the similar limitations are disclosed under Ooki-Yacoub for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claim 1 [Supra 1]. Also, Ooki-Yacoub further discloses the resource installation position managing means for managing the position at which the resource managed by the resource information managing means exists and selecting an arbitrary resource [Ooki, col. 3, lines 39-61 and col. 4, lines 11-63] [Yacoub, col. 10, lines 28-65].

6. Regarding claim 3, claim 3 has similar limitations as claim 1 and additional limitations of a resource information holding means for holding the resource information relating to the resources that can be managed directly and comparing means for comparing the content of the resource information holding means and the content of the resource information managing means of the first computer, detecting a replaceable resource. Therefore, the similar limitations are disclosed under Ooki-Yacoub for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claim 1 [Supra 1]. Also, Ooki-Yacoub further discloses resource information holding means for holding the resource information relating to the resources that can be managed directly and comparing means for comparing the content of the resource information holding means and the content of the resource information managing means of the first computer, detecting a replaceable resource [Ooki, col. 3, lines 39-61 and col. 4, lines 11-63] [Yacoub, col. 6, line 46 – col. 7, line 9].

7. Regarding claim 4, claim 4 has similar limitations as claim 1. Therefore, it is rejected under Ooki-Yacoub for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claim 1 [Supra 1].

8. Regarding claim 5, claim 5 has similar limitations as claim 1 and additional limitations of a resource information holding means for holding the resource information relating to the resources that can be managed directly and comparing means for comparing the content of the resource information holding means and the content of the resource information managing means of the first computer, detecting a replaceable resource. Therefore, the similar limitations are disclosed under Ooki-Yacoub for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claim 1 [Supra 1]. Also, Ooki-Yacoub further discloses resource information holding means for holding the resource information relating to the resources that can be managed directly and comparing means for comparing the content of the resource information holding means and the content of the resource information managing means of the first computer, detecting a replaceable resource [Ooki, col. 4, lines 11-63] [Yacoub, col. 6, line 46 – col. 7, line 9].

9. Regarding claim 6, claim 6 has similar limitations as claim 1 and additional limitations of a resource updating means for updating the content of the resource information managing means when receiving an updated resource. Therefore, the similar limitations are disclosed under Ooki-Yacoub for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claim 1 [Supra 1]. Also, Ooki-Yacoub further discloses a resource updating means for updating the content of the resource information managing means when receiving updated resource information [Ooki, col. 4, lines 11-63] [Yacoub, col. 2, lines 25-29 and col. 6, lines 32-42].

10. Regarding claims 7-9, claims 7-9 have similar limitations as claim 1. Therefore, they are rejected under Ooki-Yacoub for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claim 1 [Supra 1].

11. Regarding claims 10 and 11, claims 10-11 has similar limitations as claim 1 and additional limitations of a resource noticing means for noticing the content of the resource information managing means and updating resource information registering means by receiving the updated resource information from the computer. Therefore, the similar limitations are disclosed under Ooki-Yacoub for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claim 1 [Supra 1]. Also, Ooki-Yacoub further discloses a resource noticing means for noticing the content of the resource information managing means and updating resource information registering means by receiving the updated resource information from the computer [Ooki, col. 4, lines 11-63] [Yacoub, col. 2, lines 25-29 and col. 6, lines 32-42].

Art Unit: 2142

12. Regarding claims 16-21, claims 16-21 have similar limitations as claim 1.

Therefore, they are rejected under Ooki-Yacoub for the same reasons set forth in the rejection of claim 1 [Supra 1].
